I,        of        aged        years, being free by birth and of mature age, do declare, that, unbiased by the improper solicitation of friends, and uninfluenced by mercenary offer myself a candidate for the mysteries of Masonry ;

that I am prompted by a favorable opinion conceived of the Institution, and a desire of knowledge : and that I will cheerfully conform to all the ancient usages and established customs of the order.

Witness my hand this        day of        A.D. 18    .

HISTORICAL SKETCH

OF MANITO LODGE, No. 90, G. R. U., COLLINGWOOD.

The name of Manito Lodge first appears in the Proceedings of the "The Ancient Grand Lodge of Canada," at an Especial Communication held at Toronto on July 14th, 1858, that being the day on which the "Union" was perfected between that body, which had previously been known as "The Provincial Grand Lodge of Canada West," and "The Grand Lodge of Canada," which was formed on October 10th, 1855.

Among the Dispensations issued for new Lodges reported by the Grand Master appears one to Manito Lodge, Collingwood, and it was represented at that communication by T. C. Prosser, W. M., and Charles Kelly, S. W.

Manito Lodge was the second Lodge formed in the County of Simcoe. At that time the only other Lodge in this County was Simcoe Lodge at Bradford, which was opened in 1857. The only Lodge then in the County of Grey was St. George's Lodge at Owen Sound. Corinthian Lodge at Barrie was formed shortly afterwards and it was also represented at the "Union" meeting in July, 1858.

The returns published with the Proceedings of 1858 show these four Lodges numbered as follows:—

But at the re-numbering of the Lodges in 1859 according to the dates of their respective formations, the numbers were fixed as follows and as they are still retained :—

The next Lodge in this neighborhood was Pythagoras Lodge, No. 137, Meaford, formed in 1859. The next Lodge in the County of Simcoe was Orillia Lodge, No. 192, Orillia, formed in 1867.

Very Worshipful Brother Thomas Chevalier Prosser was the moving spirit in the formation of Manito Lodge. He was emphatically the Father of the Lodge. The preliminary convention was held in his house in Collingwood with Bro. Prosser in the chair and also acting as Secretary. He was the first Master and was practically Master for seven years, as he was the only one who could confer the degrees until 1865. He was Master in 1858, 1859, and 1860. At that time, following the English practice, the constitution provided that no Brother should continue in the office of Master for more than two years in succession without a dispensation. So we find that the D. D. G. M. of the Toronto District reports that on December 22nd, 1858, he had granted a dispensation to Manito Lodge to enable their W. M. to occupy the chair for a third year,—the S. W., (Charles Kelly), having been removed by death and the Brethren having unanimously requested the dispensation. Bro. Prosser was again elected Master in 1862. He is now living in dignified retirement in Detroit where the writer had the pleasure of spending a day with him a few months ago. His health is not very good but he dearly loves a chat with any of his old Masonic friends. He was appointed a Grand Steward in 1858 [Since the above was written, we have learned of the death of Bro. Prosser, which took place at Detroit on the 13th April, 1893.]

Manito Lodge is fortunate in having a complete set of unbroken records. The Minutes are all complete from the first meeting down to date.

The first Minute book opens with an account of the proceedings of a convention held in the house of Bro. T. C. Prosser in Collingwood on November 23rd, 1857. The following Master Masons were present: Charles Kelly, of Barton Lodge, Hamilton; Edmund Butterworth of the same; William Darley Pollard, of Lodge of Friendship, No. 52, Manchester, England; John McFadzen, of St. John's Lodge, No 3, Ireland; William Shepherd, of the State of Missouri; George Collins, of St. Andrew's Lodge, No. 137, Halifax; and T. C. Prosser, of Western Light Lodge, No. 7, Bolton.

Of these seven brothers, Bro. George Collins is the only one remaining in Collingwood and still a member in good standing in Manito Lodge. Bros. Kelly, Butterworth and Pollard are dead. Bro. Prosser has withdrawn and Bros. McFadzen and Shepherd have been suspended.

It is presumed that these seven Brethren had previously proved themselves to each other and Bro. Prosser was voted to the chair and also acted as Secretary. After administering the usual obligation, a resolution was passed to petition the Grand Master of The Ancient Grand Lodge of Canada to grant them a Warrant under the name of Manito Lodge, of Collingwood. The officers were then chosen, the night of meeting named, the fees and dues decided upon, the by-laws of St. Andrew's Lodge of Toronto adopted pro tem, and Bros. Prosser, Kelly and Pollard were appointed as a committee to carry out the resolutions.

This committee evidently acted with the utmost promptitude, for the Dispensation was granted within three days after the meeting. It bears date November 26th, 1857. It was issued to Bros. T. C. Prosser, W.M.; Charles Kelly, S. W.; William Shepherd, J.W.; W. D. Pollard, John McFadzen, Edmund Butterworth and George Collins. It is signed by the Executive Officers of The Ancient Grand Lodge of Canada, Sir Allan Napier MacNab, G. M., Thomas G. Ridout, D. G. M., and F. Richardson, Grand Secretary.

The first meeting under the Dispensation was held in the house of Bro. Prosser on December 10th, 1857. The Dispensation was presented and read. A committee was named to make search for a fitting room wherein to hold the Lodge, and to obtain the fixtures and tools necessary for its effectual working.

The next meeting must have been a memorable one. It lasted from ten in the evening until five the next morning. It is styled the first regular meeting of Manito Lodge, held in the Lodge room, December 31st, 1857, and January 1st, 1858. A certificate was read from the Grand Secretary that Bro. Prosser had been installed as W. M. in Toronto on December 31st, 1857, in the presence of a duly constituted Board of Installed Masters. As Bro. Prosser was in the chair at 10 p.m. he must have returned from Toronto by the evening train and opened Lodge immediately upon his arrival. The other officers were then installed, and six petitions received and ballotted on. At 12 o'clock the Lodge was called off for half-an-hour. On resuming, four candidates were initiated, and the Lodge was again called to refreshment for two hours, and it was closed in harmony at 5 a.m. At this lengthened session three visitors were present, Bros. Henry Fraser and Alexander McPhee, of Barrie, and Sandford Fleming, now of Ottawa.

After this the Lodge worked along in good shape, initiations were frequent and practice meetings were often held to perfect the officers in the work.

An Emergency was held January 13th, 1858, at which two candidates were initiated and two petitions received. Bro. William Gibbard, of Emulation Lodge, London, England, applied for affiliation. It was resolved to ask for a dispensation to pass and raise six candidates without waiting the full period required by constitution, "as the Lodge having at present but few members, great difficulty arises in filling the chairs." This meeting opened at 9 o'clock p.m., and closed at 3.20 a.m., with, of course, a decent interval for refreshment.

The next Regular was on February 4, 1858, opened at — o'clock and closed at 4.30 a.m. These early meetings were evidently late ones and they always had refreshments. The dispensation asked for was refused, the Grand Master stating that the reasons set forth were not sufficient to warrant him in departing from the usual rules. A design for a Seal was adopted and by-laws read a first time. Three petitions were received and five candidates passed.

At an Emergent meeting on February 16th, 1858, they had one initiation and two passings and closed at 1.30 a.m.

On March 4th, 1858, they had a distinguished visitor in the person of Bro. Francis Richardson, the Grand Secretary. He apparently came up from Toronto to assist in conferring the Third Degree or perhaps to do the work for them, as this is the first record of that ceremony. They had one initiation and five raisings, only 30 minutes for refreshments and closed at 3.30 a. m.

April 1st, 1858. Bro. M. Northup was installed as Secretary. Bro. W. D. Pollard had been nominally Secretary and had resigned. The minutes of the "Convention" are in his writing. The rest down to February 4th, 1858, are in the handwriting of Bro. Prosser, and from that time in that of Bro. Northup. Bro. W. H. Wensley, (the present oldest member except Bro. George Collins, Charter member.) was initiated and two candidates were passed. Bro. Robert Ross, who had been acting as Treasurer, was granted a demit, and Bro. G. W. Armstrong was elected as Treasurer. Closed at 12.30 a. m.

The By-laws were finally adopted on April 6th, 1858. One initiation, two passings, and one raising, and closed at 1 a. m.

April 29th, 1858. Bros. John Harvie and A. M. Taylor were appointed Auditors. A committee was appointed to report on the propriety of holding a Festival of St. John. The chronicler was in doubt as to which St. John it would be, so he considerably leaves it "St. John the —"

June 24th, 1858. The Lodge opened early, at 7 05 p. m. Several Brethren from the new Corinthian Lodge at Barrie paid a fraternal visit, namely, Bros. C. B. Chalmers, W. M., John Wilkie, S. D., A. B. McPhee, Secretary, and John Boon. Another visitor registered as "E. H. Spinning, Joliet Chapter, Illinois." The following resolution was adopted:—"That the thanks of this Lodge are due to the W. M., Wardens and Brethren of Corinthian Lodge, of Barrie, for their kindness and attention to the W. M. and Brethren of this Lodge on the occasion of their late visit to Barrie to assist in opening the Corinthian Lodge, that the Brethren of the Manito Lodge will at any and all times be happy to meet the members of Corinthian Lodge and extend to them that friendly and fraternal regard only known to the Craft, and that a copy of the above resolution be sent to the W. M. of Corinthian Lodge." Then followed four hours of a "love feast" and the Lodge closed at 2 a. m.

The next meeting on July 1st, 1858, was the most important one yet held. The Lodge opened at 9.30 and closed at 12.15. The question of ways and means had to be faced and all the accounts that had been incurred were brought up. It seems strange to us now to read that "the Lodge went into committee of the whole on finance and accounts." They did so however and passed the bills, including $50 for the Warrant. The committee rose and reported and their report was adopted. It was resolved to request all members to settle their arrears so as to pay the bills at once. The wives of the members had probably objected very strongly to the late hours and a resolution was carried "That hereafter no new business shall be brought before the Lodge or new work commenced at any meeting after the hour of half-past ten o'clock and unless closed earlier the Lodge shall (if practicable) as a rule be closed at 11 o'clock, that whenever refreshments are partaken of by the Lodge, the Junior Warden's toast is to be proposed at 12 o'clock unless earlier, except on the occasion of the Festivals of St. John or other special occasions and then at latest by one o'clock."

A Bro. Baily had been taken care of by Bro. Shepherd, and the Lodge resolved to reimburse Bro. Shepherd as soon as the present indebtedness of the Lodge was closed up. A vote of thanks was passed to Bro. William Hutchinson for his handsome present of Working Tools. These are still in use by the Lodge.

The Warrant of Manito Lodge is dated July 14th, 1858. The Brethren named are as follows:—T. C. Prosser, W. M., Charles Kelly, S. W., William Shepherd, J. W., Milton Northup, Geo. W. Armstrong, John McFadden and Edmund Butterworth. It is signed by the Executive Officers of the Grand Lodge of Canada, W. M. Wilson, G. M., T. G. Ridout, D. G. M., and T. B. Harris, Grand Secretary. The names of Bro. W. D. Pollard and George Collins are on the Dispensation, and why they were omitted from the Warrant we cannot say. They were both in good standing so far as the Minutes show. Bros. Northup and Armstrong whose names are in the Warrant were both initiated at the first regular meeting under the Dispensation on December 31st, 1857, passed on February 4th, 1858, and raised on March 4th, 1858.

August 2nd, 1858. The Lodge opened at 7 p.m. and closed at 11.40. One passing and one raising. It was resolved to purchase the likeness of the Grand Master.

October 28, 1858. Opened at 9.30 and closed at 10.30. At this meeting the first rejection took place. There were four candidates balloted for and three of them were accepted.

November 25th, 1858. Opened at 8 p. m. and closed at 12.15. One initiation and two raisings.

At an Emergent meeting on December 14th, 1858, a letter was read from W. Bro. McPherson, of St. George's Lodge, Owen Sound, inviting the Brethren to partake of their festivities on St. John's Day. The invitation was most respectfully declined "owing to the very great inconvenience in getting to Owen Sound at this season of the year."

December 23rd, 1858. Quite a large amount of business was transacted, but they closed at 11 p. m. Three petitions were received, and one candidate initiated. A number of accounts were passed and the election of officers held. This being the first election it is a little surprising to find that there were contests for nearly all the offices.

December 27th, 1858. Installation of officers and one passing.

The next notable event appears on February 17th, 1859, when the Warrant was received and read and a motion made that the Master correspond with the Grand Secretary in relation to the mistakes in the Warrant.

March 24th, 1859. Bros. Henry Fraser and A. B. McPhee were present from Barrie. One petition was received and four candidates balloted for and accepted. One candidate was initiated, an E. A. examined and then the Lodge was called from labor to refreshment "until 7 o'clock to-morrow evening, which having been partaken of it was again called to labor." Refreshment for about 20 hours should have braced them up sufficiently, but that record is broken at the same meeting. After an initiation and one passing, the Lodge was called from labor to refreshment "until Tuesday next at 7 o'clock," (an interval of about four days.) "which having been partaken of it was again called to labor," and they finally close at 40 minutes past nine.

At the next meeting in April they had so much work that another calling off "until tomorrow evening" was necessary.

At the May meeting Bros. H. B. Hopkins and E. A. Walker came from Barrie to discuss the ensuing celebration of St. John's Day and the invitation was accepted from Corinthian Lodge "to engage in a dinner at Bro. Frazer's and participate in other engagements with them on Lake Simcoe on the steamer 'Morning' on June 24th." Two adjournments were again necessary, one "until to-morrow evening" and the second "until Monday evening." A Banner was ordered to be purchased at a cost not to exceed $60.

This Banner came to hand on June 23rd, and the next day the Lodge went down to Barrie with colors flying and had a royal good time with Corinthian Lodge on Lake Simcoe.

In December, V. W. Bro. T. C. Prosser was unanimously re-elected Master, and it was resolved to apply for the Dispensation required to enable him to hold the office for a third term. Something had leaked out about the ballot for a rejected candidate and a committee of investigation was appointed.

January 6th, 1860 It was decided to have a Masonic Ball at the Armstrong House on the 25th, and Bros. Taylor, Musgrove, Northup, Gilpin, and Williams were the committee. This Ball was duly held on the 25th, but the Lodge was apparently not closed until 8.45 p. m. on the 27th.

April 5th, 1860. A donation of $3 to the Fund of Benevolence was received from Bro. Walker, of Barrie, and it was ordered that a "thoroughly Masonic letter" should be sent thanking him for his kindness.

May 10th, 1860. A member at a distance had all his money stolen and requested a loan of $20, which was promptly voted and transmitted. Other Brothers in distress were relieved to the extent of $12 and $2.50.

June 7th, 1860. The D. D. G. M. wrote to find out the number of members, the average attendance, the number admitted since 1858 and the financial condition of the Lodge. It was voted to have a supper on St. John's Day at 7 p.m.

July 5th, 1860. Bro. Prosser was appointed to attend the Grand Lodge at Ottawa at the expense of the Lodge.

August 2nd, 1860. Bro. F. W. Cumberland of St. Andrew's Lodge, Toronto, (afterwards General Manager of the Northern Railway,) was present and delivered an interesting address on the principles of Freemasonry.

October 4th, 1860. A letter was read from the D. D. G. M. relating to the erection of a Masonic Arch on the visit of H. R. H., the Prince of Wales to Collingwood, but no action appears to have been taken thereon.

December 27th, 1860. Bro. James Cleland, (the present M. P. P. for North Grey,) was initiated. The night of meeting was changed from Thursday to Wednesday which is still retained. The officers were all elected without a contest. In each case the record states that "the motion was put three times and carried." Three is a mystical number and the Brethren were certainly given every opportunity to make other nominations.

January 21st, 1861. Bros. Chalmers Meeking and O'Brien were visitors from Barrie and received a vote of thanks for their assistance. Bros. Northup and Prosser were requested to proceed to Barrie to get Bro. Northup installed as Master.

February 27th, 1861. A committee was appointed to get up a Masonic Ball.

March 7th, 1861. A committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Joseph Robinson with regard to the third story of the building he is about to erect for the purpose of renting it for a Masonic Hall.

The Ball was held on March 20th under a Dispensation from the D. D. G. M. Lodge opened at 8.30 p. m., called off "till called on again," resumed labor on the 27th and closed at 8.30. That Masonic Ball evidently lasted just one week.

The first death among their members occurred in May, 1861. Bro. James Thorpe, an E. A., was suddenly removed. The Lodge refunded to his widow the amount of his initiation fee and paid the doctor's bill and all the funeral expenses.

June 12th, 1861. Bro. Angus Morrison, (who was M. P. for North Simcoe for a long time,) was present as an invited guest. A vote of thanks was passed to Bro. Hafenbrack for framing the Warrant.

July 24th, 1861. Bro. Thomas Gordon, P. M., and John Creasor, W.M., of St. George's Lodge, Owen Sound, visited the Lodge. Bro. Creasor is now the much respected Senior Judge of the County of Grey.

August 9th, 1861. This meeting witnessed the reception of a future Grand Master. "Mr. Henry Robertson, being properly prepared, was duly initiated into the First Degree of Masonry." Little did the Brethren think of the high honors that were in store for their young Brother, who had barely reached his majority; and the wildest dreams of the candidate never contemplated his future elevation to the highest position in the fraternity.

August 28th, 1861. The Brethren assembled at 8.25 and marched in procession to the boat and had a Masonic Excursion on the steamer "Ploughboy" to Penetanguishene. This was the first of the many pleasant Excursions under the auspices of Manito Lodge which have brought delightful memories to the participants. They returned at 11.30 p.m. and closed in harmony.

November 20th, 1861. Lots of work at this meeting. Five initiations and numerous motions. Opened at 8.45 and closed at 8.15.

Emergency on November 29th. A motion was passed that the business relating to the Masonic Asylum be postponed. This was followed by a motion that "as the Brethren do not think it proper to meet in sufficient numbers for the object of Masonic charity, therefore the question of the Masonic Ball also be postponed." Carried. Bro. H. Robertson received the Third Degree.

December 18th 1861. The Lodge voted to start a subscription to the Masonic Asylum Fund, and pledged itself to give an equal amount out of the Lodge funds. The election of officers was held and it was in striking contrast to that of the previous year. There was a contest for nearly every office and the majorities were narrow. Bro. Prosser was elected Master by a majority of one over Bro. McFadzen. Bro. E. Marrow was elected S. W. by a majority of one over Bro. Hutchinson. Bro. Wensley was elected J. W. over Bro. Robertson by the casting vote of the Master. Bro. Robertson was elected Secretary by acclamation.

December 27th, 1861. Another committee was appointed to confer with Mr. Joseph Robinson and they were restricted to a rental of $50 per annum.

January 15th, 1862. The "black-ball fiend" made his appearance for the first time. Three candidates were balloted for and all were rejected. Strong measures seemed to be needed as they determined to keep on balloting. Three ballots were taken on each candidate and all were unfavorable, but on the fourth ballot, the "fiend" weakened and they were all finally accepted.

February 19th, 1862. Negotiations were closed with Mr. Joseph Robinson to rent the third flat of his brick building for $50 per year for three years, and $65 per year for two subsequent years. At this meeting Bro. John Nettleton (afterwards D. D. G. M. for the Georgian District) was initiated.

The first official visit made by the D. D. G. M. to Manito Lodge was on October 8th, 1862. R. W. Bro. Alfio De Grassie was received with Grand Honors and gave an eloquent address.

December 10th, 1862. Bro. H. M. Cleland was elected Master and Bro. H. Robertson was re-elected Secretary. King Lodge offered an apology for an invasion of jurisdiction, but a motion to accept it was lost. Negotiations with Mr. Robinson for a Hall had failed and some efforts were made to buy the Orange Hall from Mr. C. Cameron but they also were unsuccessful.

In March, 1863, the dues were reduced from two shillings and six pence to one shilling and three pence per month.

Some time this year the Lodge moved to their new Hall. The lease from Mr. Joseph Robinson was accepted in May and Bro. Fair was requested to purchase a carpet with Masonic emblems if possible, but not to exceed in price $1 per yard.

The elections in December passed off very harmoniously and without a contest.

February 24th, 1864. V. W. Bro. T. C. Prosser donated to the Lodge a handsome "copy of the Holy Writ" and received a vote of thanks therefor. It was resolved to hold a Lodge of Instruction every second Wednesday.

In 1865 with Bro. Robertson in the chair the Lodge improved greatly in the work and rapidly came to the front as one of the best country Lodges in the Province. The old fashions of late hours, and heavy refreshments at every meeting were abolished. Frequent meetings were held for instruction and the "Lectures" were given for the first time. A new and improved code of by-laws was adopted. The officers all got up their work well and the members were no longer afraid to visit other Lodges. Special attention was paid to the symbolism of the degrees, and the meetings were enlivened by discussions on various points and much information was gathered thereby.

In August the Brethren of Pythagoras Lodge, No. 137, of Meaford, joined with Manito Lodge in a procession and an excursion to Penetanguishene.

October 4th, 1865. Word was received that Bro. Robertson had been appointed a Grand Steward.

July 2nd, 1866. An Emergency was held at 7.20 a.m. to initiate Duncan McLean and J. B. Symes, two Master Mariners who were great chums and who wished to "ride the goat" together on the only day in the season when their respective steamboats would be in the harbor at the same time. This is the earliest work on record. Ten members were in attendance. One of the steamers was held back for an hour, and left at 9 a.m. with her Captain duly initiated.

August 21st, 1866. The Lodge enjoyed an Excursion to Owen Sound.

August 29th, 1866. Bro. E. R. Carpenter (afterwards a Grand Steward) was initiated. Bro. Carpenter was Secretary in 1867, S. W. in 1868, Master in 1869 and 1870. He was elected Treasurer in 1871 and still holds that responsible position.

December 26th, 1866. Bro. Nettleton succeeded Bro. Robertson as Master, and under his guidance the Lodge prospered exceedingly. Bro. Nettleton has the distinguished honor of having conferred more degrees than any other member of the Lodge. He was Master in 1867 with 12 initiations, in 1868 with 11, in 1871 with 13, in 1872 with 7, and in 1874 with 4, a record hitherto unapproached. He has also been Master of Caledonian Lodge when it was located in Angus, and of Granite Lodge at Parry Sound. He was elected Grand Registrar in 1873, and was the first D. D. G. M. of the Georgian District.

The Festival of June, 1870, was spent by the Brethren in Barrie at a Union Celebration with Corinthian and other Lodges. They had a large procession to the Church and heard an "eloquent discourse" from Rev. Bro. Morton. Then they marched to the beautiful grounds of Bro. W. D. Ardagh and enjoyed the pleasures of union and fraternity all afternoon.

May 30th, 1877. Bro. James C. Ovas, who has since held the office of the Grand Master, of Manitoba, was initiated. Thus Manito Lodge can claim to have furnished two Grand Masters to the Craft and probably there are very few lodges that can make the same claim.

George Collins, then Lighthouse keeper on Notawasaga Island, who saw the boat capsize, and with his son Charles immediately went to the rescue. The body of Bro. Robert Waddell was afterwards recovered and buried with Masonic Honors by Manito Lodge. A vote of thanks was passed to Bro. Collins for his timely assistance in saving the parties capsized off the Island, and his great efforts to recover the body of Bro. Waddell. It is also proper to record that the services of Bro. Collins and Manito Lodge were handsomely acknowledged by the survivors of the accident, and by Bro. Waddell's Lodge and family. A silver set of five pieces was presented through Manito Lodge to Bro. This was a sequence of the great fire of September, 1881, which destroyed most of the buildings on Hurontario street and among others the Oddfellows' rooms in the fourth flat of T. Long & Brother's store.

November 9th, 1881. The A. O. U. W. applied to rent the Lodge room for a year. It was refused as being "incompatible with the uses and principles of the Craft."

William Robinson, Patrick Doherty, Thomas Collins, James Lindsay, Charles Cameron, Robert Henry and W. H. Wensley have become life members and they, with Bros. H. Robertson, J. Nettleton and E. R. Carpenter may fairly be considered the Veterans of the Lodge. As the average duration of Lodge membership is only about ten years, Manito Lodge has an exceptionally good showing in having so many members of over 25 years standing.

December 27th, 1888. The Auditors' reported the Assets of the Lodge to be $1289 74. W. Bro. W. T. Toner received a P. M. Jewel.

ing for the election of Hall Trustees. The corner stone of the new building was laid on May 24th by the Grand Master of the Oddfellows and with their ceremonies, the Masons attending as individuals. This was a matter of agreement between the two Societies, as to the Oddfellows belongs the credit of originating the scheme. The joint action of these bodies has secured the present magnificent Temple as a monument to the enterprise of both bodies, and an illustration of the beauties of union among those engaged in the promulgation of similar principles.

This closes the Record of Manito Lodge to the end of 1892, and it will be left to the future historian to carry on the work in due time.

It will be proper in closing this Sketch to recount the particular places in which the meetings of Manito Lodge have been held since its formation, and the removals from time to time until the final establishment of the Brethren in a home of their own.

The first Lodge Room occupied by Manito Lodge was a small room in the old frame Railway Station. It was partitioned off from the large Waiting Room and had its only entrance on the outside at the South. It was very small and very inconvenient, but it was probably the best the Brethren could do then. Its use was kindly granted by the Railway authorities, most of whom were members of the Craft. The Lodge met there from 1858 to 1863, when they removed to the third flat of the brick building on the corner of Huron and Ste. Marie streets, which was built by Mr. Joseph Robinson and occupied by Mr. John McMaster as a hardware store, and is now the Queen's Hotel.

This Hall was occupied by the Lodge until February 1st, 1870. Then they moved to the Masonic building on East Hurontario street, built by Bro. James Lindsay, who fitted up the third flat expressly for the Lodge with proper ante-rooms and everything convenient, on a lease for ten years at $100 per year.

This arrangement continued until December 11th, 1889, when the Lodge removed temporarily to the Odd-fellows Hall over the store of T. Long & Bro. on West Hurontario street. There they met until December 26th 1890, when the last removal was made to their present magnificent Temple, with ample accommodation and every modern convenience, in which we hope that a long and prosperous career of usefulness and devotion to the true principles of Ancient Freemasonry is in store for our beloved MANITO LODGE.
